CHAPTER _____

An act to add Section 3001.5 to the Penal Code, relating to parole.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 2295, De La Torre. Parole: retention of records.

Existing law generally regulates parole.

This bill would require the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation to retain all files, or electronic copies of those files, prepared by the Division of Adult Parole Operations regarding any person who was paroled who is required to register as a sex offender for 75 years from the date of release.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3001.5 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

3001.5. For 75 years from the date of release, the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation shall retain all files, including handwritten or typed field files, or electronic copies of those files, prepared by the Division of Adult Parole Operations regarding any person who has been released on parole from the state prison who is required to register pursuant to the Sex Offender Registration Act.
